In Loving Memory of Justin Blount Also known as “Jah Savage”

Justin Ferrell Blount, son of Anthony Demarco William Blount and Stacey (Gilmore) Blount, was born Saturday, March 11, 1989, in Harrisburg, PA.

Justin received his formal education at Harrisburg High School. He grew up to be a loving and kind young man. He loved and was loved by family and friends, and he was a dedicated father to his children. Music was one of his loves. His music will forever live on to become legendary. He was also a jokester and could really make you laugh.

On Thursday, October 6, 2022, while at the Penn State Hershey Medical Center, Hershey, PA, surrounded by family and friends, Justin transitioned from this earthly life into eternal life.

Justin leaves to celebrate his life his parents, Anthony and Stacey Blount; his partner, Loretta Richardson; his children, Kayden, Armani, Kaylee, Kamden and Mylee; brothers, Branden and Deon Gilmore, TyLear and Teron Blount; sisters, Tashiana, Tyshania, Tatianah and Opal; a host of other brothers and sisters; his grandparents, Viola Alridge and Mr. and Mrs. Carolyn and George Geary; uncles, Terry Blount and Titus Gilmore; aunts, Christine Gilmore, Tonya, Tina, Rozalind and Michelle; as well as other family members and many, many friends whom he loved dearly.

Rest In Paradise, Justin, until we meet again!

Wow still hard to believe. Justin I admired your connection with Kamdyn. As we all know Kamdyn loves to rap he gets it from his daddy. I will miss our cig smokes and conversations on the patio. You always treated my daughter with respect. You was the son I never had. You will truly truly be missed.

“ I'll never forget the studio sessions in New Cumberland! J.Bricks always came ready to rap and laugh. Always had a smile and a big hug for me every time I saw him. Rest easy bro. ❤️

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Jah. He would come to the house with my grandson and if I always had any baked goods for him. I remember his big smile. He was a nice guy. May God bless the family.
