The Obituary

Kaquan Latif Hendricks Jr.

Kaquan, affectionately known as 'Wubby,' was born on May 10, 2013, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, the son of Tamara Renee Williams and Kaquan Latif Hendricks Sr.

Wubby was known for his big pretty eyes. He would put a smile on your face each time you looked at him. He loved being held by his family and friends and found comfort in R&B music. Wubby may have been small in stature, but he was our little soldier.

On Monday, December 16, 2013, the Lord decided to call Wubby home. Wubby leaves to cherish his loving memory: parents, Tamara and Kaquan Sr.; brother Khalil and sister, Khaliya Hendricks; maternal grandparents, Leslie Glass, Darrell and Rosetta Williams; paternal grandparents, Robyn Hendricks and Henry Sabb; maternal great grandparents, Michael and Patricia Jackson, Pastor Charles and Tanya Quann; paternal great grandparents, Robert Hairston and Yolanda Tucker (deceased); uncles and aunts, Malachi Glass, Precious Everson, Chandy Pointer (Terrence), Kynesia, Kyia and Mahdi Hendricks; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.

Wubby leaves "footprints" on the hearts of his loved ones to cherish.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

“ I'm sorry for your loss. I hope the promise that God has made at Revelation 21:4,5 brings you as much comfort as it has brought me. It tells how God " will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

Hugs and Prayers to you and your family.

“ My deepest condolences to the family on the loss of your precious little Wubby. I know this is a difficult time for you and we don't always understand why things happen. But God's word promises that "there is going to be a resurrection" Acts 24:15. Also, Revelation 21:4 says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". These prophecy will be fulfilled in the future, but for now just think of your little darling as sleeping peacefully waiting for Jesus to wake him up.
