“ Very strong and upbeat. Loved to tell her kids any kind of story you wanted to hear and most was true. If we said, Manmaw tell us some spooky stories; she would tell about her and her brother growing up and the things they almost and did get away from narrowing adventures. She could dance and sing a tune back in the day. Used to sing at Lawson Club, way back in the days of early Harrisburg nite life. I know cause I was there, keeping her company and rooting her on. Cynthia (Kim) eldest daughter. Posted Sept 8, 2010.
