

Kelly J. Arrington

July 13, 1962 - September 26, 2021

On July 13, 1962, Charlotte Arrington and Joe Miller gave birth to a bundle of joy whom they named Kelly! Growing up in an Allison Hill neighborhood, Kelly is lovingly remembered by everyone to be a real sweetheart who was full of laughter and love.

Kelly was educated in the Harrisburg School District, proudly graduating from Harrisburg High School in 1980. Kelly was an employee of the Harrisburg Hospital until she retired.

Many things brought a smile to Kelly's face and in her heart: a few being her family, cooking delicious food, chocolate cake with peanut butter icing, traveling, especially to visit her "home away from home" in Texas with her son, daughter-in-law and granddaughters. Her favorite football team the Dallas Cowboys playing games on her tablet and spending time with family/friends.

Kelly was a natural caregiver, loving others unconditionally, providing a temporary safe haven for family and friends who were in need, advocating and cheering on the successes for not only her two children but for all the young people in Kelly's world . The recipients of Kelly's love will always know that they were loved and be forever blessed.

On Sunday, September 26, 2021 at fifty-nine years of age, Kelly departed this life joining in eternal life her parents, sister Cheryl Arrington, nephew Tyron Arrington and brother Terry Miller.

Kelly leaves many to cherish shared memories her son, Bryan Arrington and wife Kimberly; daughter, Erika Arrington; niece/daughter, Brittany Arrington; her granddaughters, Kailynn Arrington, Biancaè Arrington, D'Era Arrington, Kulani Arrington and Jah'Yae Arrington; grandson, James Washington Jr.; great-granddaughter, England Arrington-Folkes; brother, Norman Arrington Jr.; sisters Gina Arrington and Phyllis Arrington; paternal siblings Joseph Miller, Gary Miller, Jodenna Crawford, Elita Miller-Snyder and Todd Miller; special friend, Robert Nelson; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, 5 godchildren, extended family, classmates and friends.

“ My Heartfelt Condolences and Prayers to ALL...and may GOD WIPE ALL YOUR TEARS WHEN YOU THINK OF YOUR MOMMY, GRANDMOM, AUNTIE, SISTER, AND BESTIES...

WoW!!!! Where do I start....I met you at my Aunt Carol house when you was coming to hang with my Big Cousin Robin's you was her Bestie and then Bryant pop out and then I had to keep a eye on him while you and Robin was chillin on the third floor and I didn't mine it because he was a handsome little guy...then we go skating at Haggy's...you was so funny omg You, Vette, Robin, Lucy SMH...and you always had a smile and jokes I was only in High School when you became my extended Family Member goodness we had fun on 18th Street and anywhere that Cousin Robin would let me tag along with you all....

Kelly it was a shock to me when my Cousin Robin said you left us I was just lost for words...I know you are looking down on everyone...

♥ Rest Well Cousin Kelly Job Well Done Cousin 🌹

“ Aunt Kell you were loved and needed by so many people . From the day I met you , you showed nothing but love, compassion and just a real person . I can't believe that this is happening but GOD truly knows the plans even the ones we don't understand. You accepted me in your family and continued to show your love .Diehard cowboy fan , love coming to Texas and spending time with your son and daughter-in-law and grandchildren. Lord you will be truly missed aunt Kelly . Every time I would see you I would run and jump in your lap like a big kid and just scream your name.. Im to old for that lol but you would let me do it anyway .. I will forever cherish that moment we shared . Our countless conversations, facetimes will be missed. It's heartbreaking to say goodbye for now but one day we will meet again . Sending all my love and prayers to ALL the Arrington family and extended family. Especially to her children. Love you guys ❤️❤️

“ Miss Kelly known by me as "Mother Love" and that's because with her there was always nothing but love. One thing I will never forget is her laugh and how she supported all the kids that played on her son's baseball team. It was as if they were all her children.
