The Obituary

Kelly M. Harris

~~~~~

“Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.” I Corinthians 2:9

Kelly M. Harris, daughter of the late William Harris and the late Marelene Cooke, was born in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Friday, February 28, 1964. On Thursday, April 11, 2013, in her forty-ninth year, while at her Crescent Street, Harrisburg home, Kelly passed from this life into eternal life. She was preceded in death by one son, William Harris.

Kelly attended Harrisburg High School and was devoted to the care of her children and granddaughter whom she dearly loved.

Sharing the grief of losing this very special lady are her four children, Kysheria Harris, Jerryce Jenrette, Briauna Harris and Raymond Totton; her fiancé, Lester J. Preston III; one granddaughter, Marelene R. Harris; five brothers, Anthony, Juan and Michael Cooke, Lamont and James Harris, all of Harrisburg; as well as a host of other relatives and friends.

Blessed to Have Shared Kelly's Journey!

The Family

Love Lives on Forever

Those we love remain with us, for love itself lives on.
Cherished memories never fade because a loved one has gone home.
Those we love are never more than a thought away.
As long as there is memory,
Kelly lives in our hearts.

“ We had our ups and downs but we also shared our good times. You might have not known but you were like a 2nd Mother to me opened up your home to me and my son like we were family made sure we were ok and showed us love in your own special way. I miss you Ms. Kelly and I wish I could bring you back but I know God needs you up there with him. You are a special lady and I love you dearly.
