The Obituary

Kevin M. Harrison

“For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.” I Corinthians 15:53-57 ~~~~~

Kevin was born Saturday, April 24, 1965, in Othello, Washington, son of the late Rudolph Harrison and the late Annet Suber White-Green.

Kevin was a graduate of the Willingboro, New Jersey, public school system. He attended Grace and Mercy Church and Ministries where his late mother diligently served. Kevin was employed as a parking supervisor by the Harrisburg International Airport. Among his passions were the pride and interest he took in his car, going to the farm show and taking long drives.

In Middletown, PA, on Saturday, March 29, 2014, Kevin completed his earthly journey joining his parents and his sister, Michelle R. Jackson, in everlasting life. He leaves to celebrate his life and cherish many special memories: one son, Kevin Williams of Chester, PA; one brother, Rudolph Harrison Jr. of Florence, SC; six nieces, Eashia Harrison of Middletown, Rakeisha Harrison of Elkins Park, PA, Tishante Jackson of Laurel Lakes, NJ, Sidra Harrison of Philadelphia, PA, Michelle R. Jackson of Burlington, NJ, and Tiffany Jackson of Lawrenceville, NJ; his companion, Dawn Boozel of Mt. Union, PA; as well as other family members and friends.

Giving God all Glory, Honor and Praise, The family

“Only God can judge me!

No one has walked in my shoes and traveled roads I’ve been down.

All we need is love.” -Kevin-
