

Kevin Leetrell Hill

March 2, 2002 - March 8, 2024

Kevin Leetrell Hill, son of Robert C. Hill and Jerelyn (King) Hill, was born Saturday, March 2, 2002, in Harrisburg, PA.

Kevin's educational path included John Harris High School and Commonwealth Charter Academy (CCA). He was employed by the Gardens at Blue Ridge Nursing Facility. A hard worker, Kevin loved his job always interacting with people in a gracious and respectful manner.

When not working, Kevin enjoyed football, especially his Dallas Cowboys, basketball, baseball, boxing and virtually all sports; thought he knew it all when it came to sports (LOL). He loved being on the boat fishing, going to the beach, playing his computer games and dressing up in nice clothes going out of town. Foremost, Kevin loved taking his son Elijah who was the joy-of-his-life to City Island to play. Kevin cherished time spent with Elijah and his family.

Kevin Leetrell Hill, a beloved son, father, brother, grandson, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend, unexpectedly and peacefully passed from this life into eternal life on Friday, March 8, 2024, at twenty-two years of age. Kevin was preceded in death by his sister, Tiesha R. Haley, and his best friend, Kobe Santiago.

Kevin leaves broken hearts and his love to his father, Robert Hill; mother, Jerelyn Hill; his son, Elijah Baltazar; brothers, Trayvon Hill, ZhaQuan Hill, Tametrius Clark, Josh Ramos and Nate Ramos; sister, Maya Range; grandparents, Barbara Hill and Jerome A. King Sr.; great-grandmothers, Mildred Bethea and Shirley King; along with a long list of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Kevin will be dearly missed, but never forgotten. He will continue to live through his family!

“ Robert and Jerelyn and Family. We are so sorry for your loss. I will never forget Kevin riding his bike, up and down the street(Berryhill), with his beautiful smile. He will always be in our thoughts, and all the laughs he brought to each Day. I wish you all comfort and peace in the upcoming days and may Kevin's spirit forever shine.
