

Kimberly M. Roundtree

February 27, 1964 - September 2, 2013

Kimberly M. Roundtree

~~~~~

After the clouds, the sunshine,
after the winter, the spring,
after the shower, the rainbow,
for life is a changeable thing.
After the night, the morning,
bidding all darkness cease,
after life's cares and sorrows,
the comfort and sweetness of peace.

Helen Steiner Rice

~~~~~

Kimberly, known as "Kim" by her family and friends, was born Thursday, February 27, 1964, in Baltimore, Maryland, daughter of Eddie Roundtree and Eloise Pershia.

Kim received her formal education in the Baltimore public school system where she graduated from Walbrook Senior High School. She was employed for fifteen-plus years as a Certified Nursing Assistant. Kim enjoyed her profession, especially, caring for the elderly.

Movies, traveling and spending time with her grandchildren were among those things Kim truly enjoyed. This beautiful, fun-spirited, outspoken woman with a laugh that showed her signature dimples made friends everywhere she went.

Even though she stood only five-feet tall, she had a ten-foot tall personality. On Monday, September 2, 2013, in Harrisburg, PA, in her forty-ninth year, Kim completed her earthly journey. She was preceded in death by her mother, and brother, Andre Roundtree.

Sharing the grief of Kim's transition while cherishing joyous memories are her two daughters, Kimberly T. Craig of Harrisburg, and Itavia Nophlin of York, PA; as well as Kimberly's and Itavia's fathers, Byron Craig of Baltimore, and William Nophlin of Allentown, PA, who were Kim's two close friends for twenty-plus years. Kim will also be deeply missed by her two grandchildren, Saniyah Hagans of York, and Christian Hall of Harrisburg; her two sisters, Cynthia Adell of Baltimore, and Angela Pershia of Wilmington, NC; her brother, Anthony Michael Roundtree of Baltimore; her father, Eddie Roundtree of Baltimore; and a host of other loving and supportive family members and friends...Submitted in Sorrow and Love, The Family Service for Kimberly will be held at Noon, Friday, September 6th, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing from 11 AM to Noon.

Tribute Wall

GY

“ May the family of Kimberly please accept my sincere condolence for your loss hoping you find comfort in God's word at Acts 24:15 and Psalm 37:29. May your happy memories of joyful times spent together always be with you.

Gina Younger - September 05, 2013 at 04:38 AM