“ Krissy your smile and laughter could brighten anyone's day, you always made people feel missed when I got the call it was like my heart stopped, I enjoyed you as a patient, you were little sis, my party girl, attitude for days, told it like it was, but your big heart over shadowed all of that, when I told you to push for life and be better you did, Fox will never be the same without you there, rest easy little sis, Love you always and forever Nurse Tracy 🥺❤️
