

Kyle L. Jackson

April 5, 1987 - June 14, 2024

Kyle L. Jackson blessed us with his presence on Sunday, April 5, 1987.

Throughout his years, Kyle was a family-first guy, an amazing friend and businessman. Kyle referenced himself as the “intellectual hustler.” His passion was schooling those that were by his side of the “intellects of business,” saying everything he did was “ALL LOVE.” He had a niche’ for selling Nike shoes, and he became an entrepreneur in real estate and also selling clothes. He followed the stock market and global currency daily, schooling those that were by his side to get in the business and teaching many about the ups and downs of the exchange.

Kyle took his last breath on Friday, June 14, 2024. He leaves to carry on his legacy, his mother, Valerie L. Jackson; sisters, Nyla M. Jackson (Chloe), Tiana L. Baltimore (Steve, Destiny (Khaidyn), Jaiden, Saniah); his “2nd mom,” Michele Carter-Brooks (Uncle Phil, Jordan (Bre’Lynn), Ashley); and a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins.

Kyle grew to be a great man with a sense of humor that would have one laugh and then think about what he said, and laugh some more, after his parable lesson. Kyle will surely be remembered and missed.

My heart broke into a thousand pieces hearing of your passing. 🥹 I know it's been years since we spoke but I always kept you in my thoughts and prayers and I thought of you often. Your laugh still lingers and you always had that one of a kind smile on your face despite what you were going through. To know that your no longer suffering friend brings a lot of comfort to my heart and soul. I know your rejoicing in heaven with Cory and everyone else who passed on. It's all love Kyle ❤️ job well done here on earth. My heart goes out to your mom, sisters and everyone that truly genuinely cared about you and loved you. You will definitely be missed and I'm thankful and grateful for the time we spent together here on earth. I'll cherish all the memories forever in my heart.

Love ya

“ I went to elementary school with Kyle and we lived just a block away from each other as kids. I've always known him to be a good person and often wondered how he was doing in life and so It hurt my soul to come across the news that he has passed. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends.

Kyle, was the Guru on the Nintendo Gaming Systems in the 90's. I often went to him to find ways to beat Super Mario. The beauty of living in the Village. I became deeply saddened at the news of Kyle's passing and want to offer you all my deepest condolences, at this time. To the entire Family, you all are in my thoughts and prayers. To the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen. (Jude 1:25) With Love, Sabrina Rector and Family-Harrisburg, PA.
