

Lakisha Yvette Wiley

March 20, 1979 - February 8, 2026

Lakisha Yvette Wiley, daughter of the late Maxie Wiley and Marjorie Wiley, was born on Tuesday, March 20, 1979, in Clarksville, Tennessee.

Lakisha received her education through the Harrisburg School District and later attended Chesapeake Job Corps Center, where she furthered her education and continued building her future.

Lakisha was affiliated with The Chapel of Danville. Her faith, strength, and gentle spirit guided her daily walk and shaped the way she loved and supported those around her.

Lakisha had a deep love for music, beauty, and fishing, and she truly cherished spending time with her family and friends. She was loving, caring, and selfless, always thoughtful and supportive. Lakisha had a special way of making people feel seen, valued, and loved. Her kindness, grace, humor, and joyful presence left a lasting impression on everyone she encountered.

On Sunday, February 8, 2026, at the age of forty-six, Lakisha peacefully transitioned from this life in Danville, Pennsylvania. In addition to her father, she was preceded in death by her sister, Carla Anderson.

She leaves cherished memories and her love to her children, Myles Wiley,

Omini Wiley, and Diamond Wiley; her mother, Marjorie Wiley; her sister, Rachel Wiley; her four grandchildren; and a host of extended family members and friends who will forever carry her memory in their hearts.
