

Ms. LaToyya Robinson

July 29, 1977 - September 5, 2012

The Obituary

LaToyya Robinson

---

“Miss Me, But Let Me Go.”

---

LaToyya, affectionately known as “Penny,” was born July 29, 1977, in Brooklyn, New York, daughter of Ina Tyson Arrington and the late Louis Hubert Robinson.

LaToyya received her formal education at the P.S. 44 Brooklyn, New York, Boys and Girls High School and at Harrisburg High, John Harris and William Penn Campuses, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. She was employed by RMH and Penn Credit.

A “go-getter,” beautiful, fun, bold, outspoken, no-nonsense, unique with a one-of-a-kind laugh best describes LaToyya. She was a very caring young lady who stood only five feet, two inches, but had a ten feet tall attitude and swag like no other.

On Wednesday, September 5, 2012, in Houston, Texas, LaToyya completed her earthly journey.

Sharing the grief of LaToyya's transition while cherishing everlasting and joyous memories are her mother, Ina Tyson Arrington of Harrisburg; father, Jerry E. Gordon Sr. of Brooklyn; siblings, Kendra T. Tyson, Marcus A. Tyson, Jerry E. Gordon Jr., all of Brooklyn, Kenosha J. Tyson, Nashota G. P. Lester, Benny I. Lester III, Clarissa Davis and Kathy O'Neal Sloane, all of Harrisburg, Christie Lester of Memphis, Tennessee, Benny I. Lester Jr. of Harrisburg; her children, Knowledge Anderson of Houston, Tyanna Brown of Harrisburg, Camryn Walker of Steelton, PA, and Kayla Griffith of Houston. LaToyya will also be missed by her god-parents, Tony and Teddy Edgehill; god-brothers, Anthony Payne and Benjeil Edgehill; god-sisters, Vonnece Mansfield and Asheba Edgehill; as well as a host of other loving and supportive relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted by The Family