The Obituary

Lawrence C. Reid

“In my father’s house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also...” John 14:2-3

Son of the late Cortez Brown and the late Ellena Pritchett Reid, Larry was born Friday, December 12, 1952, in Harrisburg, PA.

He attended Steelton-Highspire High School and after thirty plus years of service, retired as a nurses’ assistant from the Dauphin Manor Nursing Home. As evidence of his Christian faith, he was united in fellowship with First Zion Baptist Church, Middletown, PA. Larry loved reading 'His Book' and watching televangelist Joel Osteen.

Visiting Hollywood Casino; playing cards, cheating his nephew CJ and everyone else; watching football, especially Penn State, the Dallas Cowboys and, of course, his local boys, the Steel High Steamrollers, were among his favorite pastimes.

In his sixtieth year, at his home in Steelton, PA, on Monday, February 11, 2013, Larry completed his earthly journey joining his parents, brother, William ‘Billy’ Reid, and nephew, Michael Cook, in eternal life.

He leaves to celebrate his life and cherish many special memories his loving, longtime companion, Denise Miller; three daughters, Lynn Miller, Nicole Miller and Courtney Reid; granddaughter, Cache Mills, all of Steelton; his siblings, Marion Johnson (Charles), Gregory Reid (Sue), all of Highspire, PA, Ricardo Reid (Lucy) of Middletown, Tammy Reid (Paul) of Steelton, Tracy Reid and Arnell Reid, both of Highspire, and Ronnie Burnett of Harrisburg; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Blessed to have shared Larry's Journey! The Family of Lawrence C. Reid

“ To the Reid Family; My prayers go out to you at this time of sorrow. Larry is with a man much stronger than any of us, and he will take care of him. I will miss my friend, and I pray that you be strong. God Is Good and He knows Best.
