“ To the Family,
We express our deepest sympathy during this difficult time. We're praying for you, asking God to comfort you today and the days ahead. I remember the first time I met y'all, it was on 13th Street when I used to visit Lisa Cheatham and Vickie Thomas. Hold on and cherish those precious memories of the times spent with Cetta.
Cetta used to cut my family's hair at Cost Cutters and she always did an awesome job.
She was a beautiful, caring person and she will be missed. She may be gone but she will not be forgotten.
Rest In Peace, Cetta.
We love you,

“ Brooks family, my heart is with you. I know that you already miss your Mom, sister, grandmother, your aunt. I am truly blessed to have been counted as her friend and bonus sister. I will always cherish the good (some hilarious) times that we shared, as well as the heartaches. I'm trying to remember whose idea it was for you, me and Paulette Paige in enter a talent show at Reservoir Park. The 3 of us , nervous and scared, got through singing "Ain't No Mountain High Enough". There are so many memories to share. We were just teens when we met but we became instant friends/sisters/family. I will miss and love you always.

“ I am going to miss you Aunt Cetta. You were my favorite aunt. The last time I saw you at 2016 Thanksgiving family dinner you walked up to me and said hey toot come give me a hug. Yes, Aunt Cetta was a good cook! I use to stop by Park ST begging for food lol Aunt Cetta use to hook me up. I'm sorry I wasn't around the last 3 years, but I'm very grateful that I got a big hug and a kiss on the cheek from you the last time I saw you. “ They say a barber wears many hats. Cetta too me was just that, if you’ve ever sat in her chair, then you can agree that she was so much more. She cut my hair since I was 15 and I was privileged enough to have her cut my son hair briefly before she had to step away. I used to always joke with her on how relaxing it was when she’d wash my hair. She always seemed to treat any one who she was around like they were family. She was a amazing woman and barber. I was blessed to have been a customer and friend to one of Gods greatest creations. I love you and you will be extremely missed. My prayers and heartfelt condolences go out to her children and family. Love you Cetta!!
