

Leona Donald

September 14, 1942 - November 5, 2010

Reflecting Upon Leona's Life"

Leona Donald, daughter of Geneva Mitchell and the late Leon Mitchell, was born Monday, September 14, 1942, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Affectionately known as "Lee" by family and friends, she was a graduate of "Old Steel High," Steelton, Pennsylvania, and retired from the former Harrisburg Hotel. A loving, giving lady, Leona was unconditionally devoted to her children and grandchildren. She acted as Vice President of Residents at the Lick Building where she resided and volunteered with Channel Foods and the Food Bank.

On Friday, November 5, 2010, Leona completed her earthly journey passing from labor to reward. She was preceded in death by her father, Leon Mitchell; and her husband, Willie Donald, Jr., who departed this life on July 12, 2010.

Her kind, loving legacy will be remembered and honored by her mother, Geneva Mitchell; sons, Wayne and Roberto Donald, all of Harrisburg; daughters, Yvonne Donald of Steelton, and Debbie Donald Turner of Harrisburg; son-in-law, Meade Turner; sisters, Gloria Degrilla of Somerdale, New Jersey, Barbara Mitchell, Ruth Jackson, both of Harrisburg, and Sharon Johnson of Buffalo, New York; brothers, Este Thomas of Camden, New Jersey, Leon Johnson of Buffalo, New York, Wyatt Daye and Alfred Thomas, both of Harrisburg; 16 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, all of whom are saddened by her passing, but will forever cherish memories of her loving spirit.