The Obituary

Leonard R. Blackstone

You can remember him and only that he is gone, or
You can cherish his memory and let it live on.

Leonard R. Blackstone, son of the late Aaron Blackstone and the late Norma Jackson Williamson, was born July 23, 1946, in Providence, Rhode Island.

Leonard graduated from William Penn High School; and, thereafter, served an honorable military tour of duty with the United States Army during the Vietnam War. After forty-three years of dedicated service, he retired from the Navy Depot (SPCC). United in Christian Fellowship with The Greater Zion Missionary Baptist Church, his fraternal affiliations included the American Legion and Fraternal Order of Police (FOP).

Leonard was a "Big Man with a Big Heart."

In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Wednesday, October 19, 2011, Leonard transitioned to eternal life completely safe and free in the peaceful, joyous Divine Presence of his Heavenly Father.

In addition to his parents, Leonard was predeceased by his stepfather, James

Williamson; his sister, Rosiland Brittingham; and stepdaughter, Chandra Lane. His life will be lovingly remembered by his devoted wife, Phyllis Blackstone of Harrisburg; his daughter, Rhonda Stringer Gordon and her husband Rickie of Columbia, South Carolina; two nephews, Ronald Blackstone and Norman Blackstone, both of Harrisburg; four stepdaughters, Yolanda Walker of Denver, Colorado, Renita Walker, Melody Lane, Tensy Lane; and one stepson, Sammie Lane, all of Harrisburg; numerous grandchildren, great grandchildren, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Life Is But A Precious Moment,

Memories Live on Forever
