“ As a kid I never knew if I was in trouble with Uncle Lenny. All I heard was a bunch of curses then he'd give a few dollars and dismiss me. When I got older I realized I was only supposed listen to words between the curses. That's when I learned that my cussing Unc was I kind, caring and he had gems (wisdom) to share. I'm gonna miss my random Uncle Lenny sightings through the city

“ To my dad,

I thank God for the six months we got reunited. I also thank God for allowing me to be your caregiver for the past two months. I will never forget the laughter we had these past two months. Last but not least I will never forget hearing you say what are we going to eat today. Son, I want McDonalds, Cheeseburger, fries and a vanilla milkshake.

*Love you dad,
Your son
Kareem*
