

Mrs. Leonia May Palmer

March 4, 1944 - March 15, 2016

March 4, 1944 – March 15, 2016

Leonia passed peacefully from this earth on March 15, 2016. She was born in Carlisle, PA, on March 4, 1944 to the late James S. Coleman and Ruth H. Coleman. She resided in Asbury Park, New Jersey, until 1978 before returning to Carlisle. Shortly after her return in 1981, Leonia, her late husband Louis Palmer and their two children relocated permanently to Houston, Texas. Leonia retired from Harris County, but still remained very active doing in-home care for elderly and being a loving, avid grandmother for the remainder of her life.

Leonia is survived by her two children, son Clarence Mason and daughter Tamie N. Mason; daughter-in-law Shervonia Mason; her grandchildren, Demetrius T. Ward, Taquilla M. Ward, Sable S. Ward, and Nikita N. Johnson; her great grandchildren, Janae M. Tucker, Daniya K. Ward and Demetrius T. Ward Jr.; also her sisters, Betty D. Thomas, Gloria Coleman, Edith Day, Lendora Coleman and Ruth (Ducky) Hadley; brothers, Ronald Coleman, Gary Coleman, Pastor Duane Coleman, James Hadley; and our family dog Braxton. Leonia will be joining in heaven her husband Louis Palmer, mother Ruth Coleman, father James Coleman, brother Richard Coleman and sister Donna Nealy.

Her life will be celebrated at 10 a.m., Saturday, March 26, 2016, at Agape International Family Worship Center, 1330 Green Street, Harrisburg, PA 17102. Viewing will be 8 a.m. - 10 a.m. Burial will be at Cumberland Valley

Memorial Gardens, 1921 Ritner Hwy, Carlisle, PA 17013, followed by a repast at Carlisle Readiness Center, 504 Calvary Road, Carlisle, PA 17013. Flowers may be delivered to Agape International Family Worship Center 3/26, 7:30 a.m.

“ My family went to visit me in the hospital, and while there my grandmother (in typical Leonia May fashion) must've given the hospital the idea that she had trouble walking. 🤔 She was close to my niece (pushing the chair) who decided to take her MiMi on an adventure.

The video depicts their adventure! 😂

She had fun.

“ I miss my friend so much. We worked together for a few years. Leonia was more like a family member than just a friend. She was the sweetest lady and had such a great sense of humor. We pulled many late night shifts together and always enjoyed some good laughs. I miss her and think of her all the time
