Lillian Mae Jenkins Clark

~~~~~

A True Testament of a Life Well Lived!

Lillian Mae Jenkins Clark, affectionately known as “Pill,” was born November 17, 1923, in Middletown, Pennsylvania, daughter of the late Lillian Bowman Jenkins and the late Charles Jenkins.

Lillian received her formal education in the Middletown School District. She was a stay-at-home Mom who loved her children and grandchildren without reserve. She loved to cook and was very good at it, well known for her fried chicken and potato salad. She enjoyed doing word-search puzzles and stayed abreast of current events by watching the daily news and “Nancy Grace.”

Lillian also enjoyed listening to Mahalia Jackson and watching “Scrabble,” “All My Children” and “Judge Judy.” She collected all sorts and styles of clocks and had quite an assortment of figurines. This loving mother, daughter and sister was a selfless person who always put others before herself and led by example.

At the blessed age of ninety-one, on Friday, February 27, 2015, while at her daughter Nancy’s home, Lillian was called home to be with her Lord. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by one son, Robert Jenkins; three sisters, Gertrude Secvears, Pearl E. Barbour, Dorothy Stoney; and one brother, Charles Jenkins Jr.

She leaves to celebrate her life four daughters, Joan C. Cobb (Belvin) of Middletown, PA, Vicki M. Sweet (Theodus) of Steelton, PA, Phyllis A. Collins (Mark) of Mechanicsburg, PA and Nancy J. Clark of Camp Hill, PA, with whom she resided; three sons, Wilbur H. Clark Jr. (Vanessa) of Harrisburg, PA, Clarence A. Clark of Reading, PA, and Michael L. Clark of Wormleysburg, PA. Special memories will also be cherished and honored by her eighteen grandchildren, Sharon Jenkins-Webb, Shelley Jenkins, Robyn Jenkins-Williams, Patrice Jenkins Edghill, Shawn Cobb, Jennifer Cobb-Paules, Gretchen Cobb, Aaliyah Sweet, Aishaa Clark, Mitchell Clark, Robert Sweet, Tesha Sweet, Mackenzy Collins, Matthew Collins, Christopher Clark, Terrance Clark, Tony Clark and Katrina Clark; thirty-three great grandchildren, two great great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ So sorry to hear of the departing of Lillian. This can be a difficult time for your family please know that you are in my thoughts. Lean on each other for needed support and know that Jehovah knows your pain, so I hope the scriptures can help you at this time.

Naham 1:7 - Jehovah is good, a stronghold in the day of distress. He is mindful of those seeking refuge in him..

Our God in heaven is a stronghold to the lowly and distressed. With heartfelt sympathy to all of you.
