

Lillian Thompson

April 28, 1955 - July 25, 2025

Lillian Thompson, the youngest daughter of the late Alton Thompson and the late Sylvia Alston-Thompson, was born on Thursday, April 28, 1955, in Brooklyn, New York.

Though she faced many challenges, Lillian touched the lives of those around her with a quiet strength and a pure, gentle spirit. She found peace in silence and joy in life's simplest pleasures -riding her favorite swing on a sunny day, savoring mac and cheese or a McDonald's cheeseburger and fries, and listening to her favorite songs, especially Jingle Bells and anything by James Brown.

Lillian aged gracefully in a loving group home, where she was embraced by caring staff and housemates. She brought warmth through her presence and light through her laughter. She was deeply loved, and her gentle soul will be profoundly missed.

On the morning of Friday, July 25, 2025, at the age of 70, Lillian peacefully transitioned into eternal rest, joining her parents; her sister, Mary McCrae; her brother, Johnny Thompson; and her beloved grandmother, Leila Wiley.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory: her sisters, Kathryn Turman and Diane Williams; her aunts, Lou Alice Prioleau and Lilly Mae Edwards; devoted caregivers, roommates and a host of other relatives and friends.
