“ Ms. Lillie was a beautiful, stern lady who didn't play! We attended church together at Antioch and she was ALWAYS real. I loved how she didn't sugar coat anything for me. I loved her for letting me hug her when other's couldn't. 😊 I send my condolences and prayers to the family, Ms. Lillie was a true part of my Christian walk and will surely be missed. Rest easy now Ms. Lillie til we all meet again. May GOD keep the family in perfect peace now and forever more.

“ To the entire Norris family, I send my sincere condolences. I will forever cherish the wonderful memories of my dear friend Lillie. I am so glad that I had the opportunity to see her at the Broad St. Market the last time I was in Harrisburg, we laughed and talked and caught up about what was going on in our lives and exchanged phone numbers. We did get to talk on the phone since I've been back home in Georgia not knowing that would be my last time hearing her voice. I thank God I had a chance to see her before He called her home. Rest in Heavenly Peace my friend. Earth has no Sorrow, that Heaven cannot Heal! Love, Stephanie Williams
