

Mr. Linard Joseph Williams

June 17, 1953 - December 2, 2012

Linard Joseph Williams

“To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven;

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant,

And a time to pluck up that which is planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down,

And a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;

A time to mourn, and a time to dance...” Ecclesiastes 3:1-4

A TIME TO BE BORN

Linard Joseph Williams, son of the late Mary F. and Joseph Williams, was born Wednesday, June 17, 1953, in Philadelphia, PA. Linard was known as ‘Lenny’ by family and friends.

A TIME OF EDUCATION, DUTY, LOVE, COMMITMENT AND FAITH

Lenny received his formal education at Germantown High School and served an honorable tour of military duty in the United States Army. He married his beloved Deborah Williams who preceded him in death. Lenny’s career path led to his retirement as an insurance agent. As a confession of his faith and acceptance of Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, he was united in Christian fellowship with St. John A.M.E. Church, Lebanon, PA, where he served on the Board of Stewards.

A TIME TO RELAX AND ENJOY

Antique cars, fishing and watching western movies were his avenues of relaxation and enjoyment.

A TIME TO DIE AND A TIME TO MOURN

On Sunday, December 2, 2012, while at the Lebanon VA Medical Center, Lenny joined his parents, wife and other loved ones in Life Eternal, exchanging mortality for immortality. He leaves to celebrate his life one son, Allin Williams of Lebanon; brothers, Martin Williams (Bertha) of Wake Forest, NC, and Mark Williams of Coatesville, PA; his sisters, Twanna Johnson and Roxanne Logan, both of Alabama, Sherri Alston (Coleman) of Raleigh, NC, twin-sister, Linda Mayes of Philadelphia; one grandson, Eric Williams of Lebanon; mother-in-law, Mary Fairy; sister-in-law, Jennifer Hunter, both of Philadelphia; six nieces, seven nephews; other relatives and friends.
