

Mr. Lorenzo Atkins

September 23, 2013 - September 23, 2013

Lorenzo Atkins, known as “Pete” by family and friends, was born Saturday, May 10, 1947, in Oxford, North Carolina. Pete was raised in Newport News, Virginia, and was educated at George Washington Carver High School.

Pete’s career path included the Harrisburg International Airport (HIA), John C. Kunkel Elementary School and retirement from Blue Cross/Blue Shield as a Security Supervisor. Having accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, he was united in Christian fellowship with First Zion Baptist Church, Middletown, PA, under the pastorate of Rev. Mary J. White-Patterson. Among those things Pete truly enjoyed in life were singing and attending social gatherings.

On Monday, September 23, 2013, at his Hanover Street home in Middletown, in his sixty-sixth year, Pete transitioned into eternal life joining his parents, Rosebud Nelson and Benjamin Atkins; his daughter, Tiffany Jackson; and one brother, Benjamin Atkins Jr.

He leaves to share memories of cherished and many special life moments his devoted wife, Linda Atkins of Middletown; two sons, Darryl Atkins and Lorenzo Atkins Jr., both of East Orange, NJ; one step-son, Gary Coleman Jr. of Middletown; two brothers, Robert Atkins of Oxford, NC, and Lawrence Clay of Clarksville, VA; one sister, Deloris France of Oxford, NC; six grandchildren, two step-grandchildren; other relatives and friends who are all blessed to have shared in Pete’s life journey.

“...the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord.” Job 1:21

Mr. Atkins' life will be celebrated at 12 Noon, Monday, September 30th, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing from 10:30 A.M. to 12 Noon.
