“ I met Lorraine at a small group meeting. The one thing I noticed about her was her patience and love with her son Justin. Lorraine and I would meet At the giant Store In Camp Hill. We often caught up with what was going on In our lives. As always she was a delight to be around. Her faith was unstoppable. She will be missed greatly by all who knew her.

“ I worked with for several months and she was a wonderful caring woman. She prayed to God so many times for my house to sell and the prayers work and when I told her she was so happy. She was kind to others, very pleasant to be around and will be missed. May the Lord give her family the strength and guidance to get them through this trying time.

“ She was a kindred spirit, the kind of friend you don't see for years, but when you reconnect you didn't skip a beat. Through all life's disappointments, she remained faithful and full of hope. She realized her greatest hope, her blessed assurance of eternal life with her Savior Jesus Christ on August 13-a hope that makes not ashamed. May the Lord comfort and care for those she left behind.
