Mae N. James

“Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.”

Psalm 23:6

Mae was born Wednesday, February 14, 1934, in Newark, New Jersey, daughter of the late Mattie Mae Jackson Clarke.

Mae graduated from William Penn High School, Harrisburg, PA, and was a devoted homemaker who enjoyed reading, playing bingo and working crossword puzzles. As a confession of her faith and acceptance of Jesus Christ as her personal Savior, Mae was united in Christian fellowship with St.
John CME Church where she served with the Outreach Ministry.

In Harrisburg, on Tuesday, July 9, 2013, in her seventy-ninth year, God in His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called Mae into eternal life joining her mother and her sister, Josephine Clarke. She leaves to lovingly remember her life: husband, Charles James Sr.; one son, Charles James Jr.; and one brother, James W. Jackson Sr., all of Harrisburg; as well as other relatives and friends.

In All Things, We Give Thanks!
