

Marguerite "Peggy" Owens

June 15, 1944 - November 16, 2023

Marguerite Owens, affectionately known as "Peggy" by family and friends, was born Thursday, June 15, 1944, in Steelton, PA, daughter of the late Ellsworth Owens and Harriet (Manmiller) Owens.

Peggy retired from Rite Aid and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Her loves were her family, friends and, especially, her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Kai`Loni, Laron, Gavin, Romeo and Breyson. She enjoyed watching her favorite TV shows, "Perry Mason," "Andy Griffith" and the game show network as well as hanging out with her friend Donna.

In Harrisburg, PA, on Thursday, November 16, 2023, at seventy-nine years of age, Peggy transitioned from time to eternity joining her parents; brother, Joseph C. Owens Sr.; and sister, Janet Gingrich.

Peggy leaves wonderful memories and her love to her daughter, Bobbi Owens of Philadelphia, PA; granddaughter, Kai`Loni Wilson-Owens of Harrisburg, PA; grandson, Laron Swann of Steelton, PA; and great-grandchildren, Gavin Jean-Baptiste, Romeo Jean-Baptiste and Breyson Jean-Baptiste, all of Harrisburg, PA; along with other family members and friends.

“ Ms Peg was a beautiful person but an exceptional soul. Her smile could light up any room and her laugh was very contagious! To know her was to love her and I’m blessed to have been close enough to cherish her as if she was my own grandmother! Nan, WELL DONE you will be missed tremendously □
