

Maria T. Buckner

March 14, 1942 - June 6, 2021

Maria T. Buckner was born Saturday, March 14, 1942, in Santa Rosa, Texas. She received her formal education in the public schools of Santa Rosa.

After forty-five years of devoted and dedicated service, Maria retired from Goodwill Keystone Area in May, 2021. She spent much of her spare time working crossword puzzles, painting, gardening, watching cop shows, playing the lottery, listening to gospel music and cooking. There is not enough time to reflect upon this beautiful lady. Without a doubt, she was loving, caring, full of laughs, cheers and willing to help anyone in need. She loved being outside but, foremost, her greatest passion was her children, grandchildren and family. Maria will be dearly missed by everyone who knew and loved her.

While at her home in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, at seventy-nine years of age, on Sunday, June 6, 2021, Maria departed this life.

Cherished memories will be shared by her daughter, Norma Brown; son, James L. Brown; daughter-in-law, Annette Hand Brown; grandchildren, Avery Taylor, Michael Ervin, Jordan Tonsel, Jasmine Brown, Jaylen Brown, JyNea Brown Smith; great-grandson, Isaiah Brown, all of Harrisburg; as well as other family members and friends.

“ Maria worked tirelessly at St. Stephen’s Episcopal Cathedral for many years, where she developed numerous friendships as part of our parish family . It was obvious that she loved her family, and she entertained us with stories of her of children & grandchildren. We at St. Stephen’s send our thoughts and prayers to her family. She will be sadly missed!

“ My grandma was a loving and caring person and would try to do anything she could for someone and a memory my grandma and me had was when I would always come up to her room and wake her up if she was sleep and start dancing for her and she would laugh and laugh and or I would come and have my hair in different styles she would be like ouu my beautiful fat girl you did that it’s pretty. But even tho she’s gone she will be missed and loved. I love you grandma and miss you❤️

“ There is not enough words in the world to describe the beautiful heart and spirit momma Maria is. My fondest memory of her is when she taught me how to make homemade tortilla. She called me "The Women" and she gave me her rolling pin. I was so excited to learn how to make them as she showed me she had tears in her eyes and I knew this was a special moment for us both because she shared with me a recipe that her son loved since he was a little boy. That is my most memorable moment and I was so Greatful for that. I will hold onto that day along with other beautiful memories of you Mrs.Maria I will love and miss you dearly. 😞
