“ My life long friend. I remember us sitting on the stoop at 28 St. Mark's Pl. In Brooklyn, laughing, joking and just being us. Your cooking was the best and you always made sure I got a plate. We lost touch through the years, we both moved to different states but we spoke on the phone as often as possible. Maria Te Amo hoy y siempre, I love you today and always.

“ No one can replace a loved one who is gone. It's an emptiness that doesn't go away, Maria you leave me with so many memories. I will cherish the moments we spent talking, laughing, crying, and sometimes even dancing together. One minute I'm laughing and smiling over a memory the next minute I'm crying over that same memory. I miss you.

You will forever be in my heart. Rest in Heaven to this phenomenal lady until we see each other again, ma Maria. 💕💕
