“ I've thought of you everyday since I found out what happened. I miss seeing you every weekday morning and evening when you would come drop and pick up Leeona from school. I miss her too. We would have our little chats not only about your daughter's progress in school but just random life stuff. I always looked forward to them. You were just so easy to talk to and we would get so caught up in our conversations no realizing how much time has passed. You were always so kind no matter what you were going through. I remember when your grandparents passed and seeing the hurt in your eyes but you managed to show strength in front of your daughter and smile through it. Flashing that lovely smile that would light up any room you entered. I think god for allowing the time given to us with you. Memories I will cherish forever. I will continue to pray for your children and loved ones through this difficult time.
