“ I am sending my condolences and prayers to the family of Deaconess Marie Wiley. She was a Beautiful woman with a personality to match. We became friends the very first time we met. She lit up the room with that Beautiful smile. We laughed and talked about a lot of different things. I really enjoyed her company. I will miss and love her.

From a 16 years old teenager to a 70 year old man, your home in 'Wiley Valley' was home.

Your call on Monday after Mother's Day (2024) was a blessing in hearing your voice never imagined it to be our last conversation, from the many we had over the years. You have been a blessing to me and my family, like my own mother, that was why I have always called you 'Mom Wiley'. Thank you for all the beautiful memories shared. Alvin.Q. & Mary F. Taylor

M - Is the great MOM that you are; Love, Beauty and God's Grace are the marks of your star.

O - Others you put before your needs and care; yet, God blessed you and you weren't aware.

T - Together with Dad, you made this house, a home; not once did you ever leave us alone.

H - Heaven sent you, it's angel you are; your life's lessons have carried your children far.

E - Every now and then, when we come to our test; you taught us to trust God, He'll do the rest.

R - A 'real mother' to us and to our many friends; your 'love legacy' of life will never end. AQT
