

Marilou Peters

June 8, 1941 - February 23, 2026

Marilou Peters, affectionately known as Mom, Nana, and Lou Lou, daughter of the late Ruth Weaver and Ray Edwards, was born on Tuesday, June 8, 1941, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Marilou received her formal education through the Harrisburg Public School System. She later devoted her life to her family as a loving stay-at-home mother. As the matriarch of her family, Marilou was the heart of every gathering and the steady presence her loved ones depended upon.

Marilou was a woman with many sides to her personality. To many, she could appear a little grumpy, but those who truly knew her understood the funny, loving, and deeply caring woman that she truly was. If you were close to her, you experienced her sweet side, especially the younger members of the family who always seemed to bring out her warmth. She loved her family deeply and found great joy simply being around them.

She enjoyed watching her favorite soap operas, working on crossword puzzles, knitting, gardening, reading, and relaxing with a warm cup of coffee or tea. Marilou also had a sharp wit and a playful “smart-aleck” sense of humor that could leave everyone laughing.

Her stubborn spirit was well known; once she made up her mind about something, it was nearly impossible to change it. Yet those closest to her also saw how appreciative she could be when others helped her with her daily routines or took her to appointments. Beneath her stubbornness was a woman full of love, humor, and gratitude.

On Monday, February 23, 2026, Marilou peacefully departed this life. She was preceded in death by her mother, Ruth Weaver; her father, Ray Edwards; and her sister, Patricia Crum.

She leaves to celebrate her life her children, Cristal Peters and Barb Peters; her daughter, Tammie Thomas (James Thomas); her grandchildren, Adrian, Natalie, Cierra (Miguel), Mason (Jada), Alex (Justin), Kenneth (Anne), Shania, Jackie, Logan, Ricardo (Ricky), Aneesa, Jalyssa, Jazzlynn, Mason Jr., Jayvion, Luke, Abigail, Annora, Malachi, Jaliyah, Julian, Kimberly, Jaymari, Malanna, Lurena, Eli, Kamora, Amylah, and Legend; her sibling, Barb Peters; along with a host of nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends.

Marilou will truly be missed by her family. They will forever remember her sassiness, her spunk, her stubborn strength, and her unforgettable laugh.
