

Mrs. Marion L. Sellers

July 2, 1929 - November 20, 2018

“God’s finger touched her and she fell asleep.”

Marion, one of seven children of the late Hardy Davis and the late Marion Clark Davis, was born Tuesday, July 2, 1929, in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania.

Affectionately known as “Sissy” by family and friends, Marion received her formal education in the Mechanicsburg Public School District; and after thirty years of faithful service, she retired from the Mechanicsburg Navy Depot as a naval supply clerk. Marion loved traveling and shopping.

For the past eighteen years, Sister Marion remained a faithful and dedicated member of Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church, Harrisburg, PA, until her health prevented her from regularly attending and participating.

On Tuesday, November 20, 2018, in her eighty-ninth year, Sister Marion passed from the labors of this journey into her reward of eternal life joining her parents and six siblings, Doris Knight, Edith Dade, Elaine Spencer, Hardy Davis Jr, Elizabeth Green and Clarkson Davis.

Sister Marion leaves not to mourn her passing, but to celebrate her life remembering good times and even some challenging times one son, Donald (Kim) Davis of Upper Marlboro, MD; one daughter, Reverend Sheila Thompson of Harrisburg, PA; two granddaughters, Jenelle Davis of Bowie, MD, Stacey (Star) Shahuri of Upper Marlboro, MD; one grandson, Alan (Vika) Logan of Greensboro, NC; three bonus granddaughters, eighteen great-grandchildren; her devoted friends, Deaconess Juanita Smith, Richelle Felton and Jeffrey Oglesby; as well as a host of other relatives, friends and her Macedonia Church Family.

“Well Done, Thou Good and Faithful Servant: Thou Hast Been Faithful Over A Few Things, I Will Make Thee Ruler Over Many Things; Enter Into The Joy of The Lord.”

Lovingly Submitted by the Family of Marion L. Sellers

“ Sheila and Donnie, I'm heartbroken and saddened at the lost and long time south side mother, Ms. Marion. I've known her and been a friend of the family since 1972. I have shared a lot of good times and childhood memories with her daughter, Sheila and will miss her presence. Our family offers our deepest sympathies and may God console you and your family during this very sad time. Submitted by Jocelyn Wadley, friend and mother, Gayle Paige.
