

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Briggery

May 3, 1939 - December 1, 2019

Mary Elizabeth Briggery, the eldest of three children of the late Dorothy Tubin Latten and the late Hubert Latten, was born Wednesday, May 3, 1939, in Charleston, SC, and received her formal education in Charleston.

In 1961, Mary married the love-of-her-life, Samuel Briggery. In 1964, they moved to Harrisburg, PA.

Mary will be remembered for her beautiful, loving and kind personality. She had a true interest in people and always made you feel important. Mary was a lady of conservative mannerisms who knew who she was and demanded your respect.

On the morning of Sunday, December 1, 2019, Mary Elizabeth Briggery departed this life joining in eternal life her parents, her daughter, Francis Latten, and her sister, Eugene Weaver. She leaves to cherish irreplaceable memories her devoted husband of fifty-eight years, Samuel M. Briggery; son, Louis Horton; brother, Hubert Latten; granddaughter, Tasha Horton; great-grandson, Erik Sims; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, in-laws and friends.

“ Louis and Mac, so very sorry to see Ms. Mary's obituary. I think of her & remember how kind she always was to me as a child growing up together with Frances. My heart is truly saddened. I pray for blessings & comfort for the family and I know there are many, many warm memories to reflect upon with much love. May God bless each of you.
