Mary Frances Mills was born on Saturday, October 15, 1927, in Warren County, North Carolina, to the late James Willis Faulcon and the late Elvira Neville Faulcon. She received her formal education in the public schools of Halifax County, NC. Being the eldest of eight children, Frances devoted her time to helping with her siblings and duties around the home.

At an early age, she accepted Christ as her personal Savior and joined Springfield Baptist Church in Littleton, NC. She united in Holy Matrimony with John T. Mills, and this union was blessed with five daughters.

She relocated to Harrisburg, PA, to be with her husband. Once in Harrisburg, she began working for Sanders and Son Textile Company. After all her children were school age, she began a career as a Domestic Housekeeper for Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Brown retiring after twenty-five years of dedicated service. Frances was not a hairdresser by trade, but spent numerous hours doing hair for family and friends. After retirement, she and her husband John relocated back to Littleton, NC, for a short time to operate a fish market. Leisurely, she enjoyed cooking, shopping, fishing and spending time with her family and friends.

Mary Frances quietly slipped away into eternal rest on Saturday, March 19, 2016, at Kinkora Pythian Rehabilitation and Personal Care Center in Duncannon, PA. In addition to her parents, she was also preceded in death by her husband, John T. Mills; three brothers, John Faulcon Sr., Eugene Faulcon and James W. Faulcon; her sister, Idell Brown; her sons-in-law, Richard F. Jones and Charles F. Roberts; her sisters-in-law, Rosetta Faulcon and Maude Faulcon; her brother-in-law, Milton R. Solomon Sr.; and her grandson-in-law, Christopher L. Watson.

Those left to forever celebrate her precious memory and cherish the times they spent together are her daughters and sons-in-law, Margaret Jones, Sarah Roberts, Lenora and Carlos Hernandez, Toni and Willard Green, all of Harrisburg, and Loretta and Frank McClardy of Stone Mountain, GA. Her legacy will also be honored by her seven grandchildren, Theresa Watson, Denita and Shenita Jones, Aalia Abdur-Rahim (William), Markia Mills-Erickson (Shelby), Carl Hernandez and Tanisha Green; fourteen great-grandchildren, ten great-great-grandchildren; her sisters, Alberta Solomon and Viola Faulcon of Littleton, NC, and Eva Ravenell of Harrisburg; as well as a multitude of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ My name is Terence Wyche and I am a descendant of Candice Neville Edmonds Smith, who was the sister of Jack Neville. I pray strength and comfort to my family during this difficult time. Certainly, God is wise and just- He knows, at all times, what is best for us.

Though I did not know Cousin Frances personally, I am sure she had those same attributes that many of the Neville family members possess-talkative, straight-forward, caring, "good cook," and a special love for family. Be encouraged family.

“ Grandmom Frances enjoyed her life to the fullest and left happy memories for anyone that knew her. I remember years ago she popped up at our house on Swatara St with a bag of groceries and told me, I'm going to show you how to make brisket so when Nora comes home you can tell her you made it. Lol Im going to miss her! But she will always be in my heart!!!
