The Obituary

Mrs. Mary Magdalene Roach

He gently closed her weary eyes and whispered, "Peace Be Thine."

Mary Magdalene Roach, daughter of the late of late Elijah and Marie Robinson, was born Thursday, May 1, 1930 in Steelton, Pennsylvania. She was educated in the public schools of Steelton.

On August 27, 1949, Mary Magdalene Robinson united in holy matrimony with James Mervin Roach of Steelton. This union was blessed with two children, Eric and Crystal.

Mary was employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of General Service from where she retired in 1990. She was a member of Harrisburg Brethren in Christ Church. Among those things she enjoyed most were reading her Bible, cooking and bowling.

In Harrisburg, on Sunday, September 25, 2011, God In His Infinite Wisdom and Divine Loved called Mary from earthly labor into eternal life resting safely in His Arms.

The widow of James Mervin Roach, she leaves a caring, generous and loving legacy to be honored and cherished by her son, Eric V. Roach; her daughter, Crystal D. Roach; grandson, Steven T. Thomas Jr.; great grandson, Amari T. Thomas; sisters, Charlotte R. Mangus and Suzanne Waters Irvin, all of Harrisburg; nieces, nephews, brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, cousins and friends, all of whom were blessed to have shared a portion of Mary's earthly journey.

Submitted with the Blessed Assurance of Mary's Eternal Life,
Her Family
