The Obituary

MARY E. SNEAD THOMPSON

Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come; Grace carried me safely through and Grace has lead me home.

Mary E. Snead Thompson, daughter of the late Sonny and Gladys Snead, was born September 1, 1931, in Atlanta, Georgia, where she received her formal education in the public school system.

Mary married Clinton E. Thompson Sr. who preceded her in death. Mary was a devoted homemaker and loving mother. She enjoyed cooking, sewing, shopping, interacting with her peers at the John Heinz Senior Center, watching old-western movies and, above all else, having her grandchildren in her presence.

In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, in her eightieth year, on Thursday, October 13, 2011, Mary exchanged mortality for immortality passing from Labor to Reward.

In addition to her parents and husband, Mary was predeceased by two brothers, Julius W. and Edward L. Snead. Surviving to emulate Mary's generous, humorous, loving and devoted spirit are her sons, Clinton E. Snead

Jr. of Huntsville, Alabama, and Jeffrey L. Snead of Harrisburg; her daughters, Betty J. Snead of Harrisburg and Ruth Thompson-Everett of Steelton; daughters-in-law, Monica Snead of Huntsville and Toshia Snead of Harrisburg; sons-in-law, Robert Baylor of Harrisburg and Earnest Everett Jr. of Steelton; eighteen grandchildren, twenty great grandchildren, one great-great grandchild; other relatives and friends
