

Mary A. Wallace

June 9, 1951 - January 13, 2021

Mary A. Wallace, daughter of Booker T. Hardy and Jessie Mae Lemon, was born Saturday, January 9, 1951, in Gadsden, Alabama.

Mary retired from UPMC Pinnacle Health, Harrisburg Hospital. A kind and respectful lady, Mary was an amazing, dedicated and loving mother who loved sewing, cooking and smelling good with her favorite scents, Dolce Gabbana and Versace Black Crystal Noir. Having confessed Christ as her personal Savior, Mary was united in Christian fellowship with Mount Calvary Church of God in Christ, Harrisburg, PA.

On Wednesday, January 13, 2021, at sixty-nine years of age, Mary transitioned from time to eternity. She leaves to cherish and honor her legacy two daughters, Corinthian Hardy, Stacy Tippitt; son, Leviticus Hardy; sister, Diretha Hardy; granddaughters, La`Tia Hardy, La`Shauna Hardy, La`Keisha Hardy, La`Naiyah Hardy; nephew, Justin Hardy; nieces, Shera Hardy, Beverly Hardy; cousin, Velmar Smith; friends, Mary Poteat, Tesha Smith, Shelia Poteat, Grace Durden; ex-husband, Anthony Wallace; godchild, Shykeia Smith, sixteen grandchildren, five great-grandchildren; other family members and friends.

“ Mary Wallace, You were always such a sweet and caring woman who I got the pleasure to meet while working with Corin at Burger King many many years ago. You always had such a beaming smile. You will certainly be missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family during this difficult time.

“ Mary Wallace... gone but Not forgotten, the spirit you left will live in me. First and formal, I just want to send my thoughts, and Prayers to the Family. Especially to Corinth & Paki , there is no right words to say, when a love one is striped from your life. and no one can say that they know what you're going through, because they don't ... but when the heart is grieving, God comes near to wrap is loving arm around you to comfort you , and catch every tear.

Mary was truly a loving person, stood her grounds when it comes to knowing the word of God. Not only did she rehearse it... but she lived it, it so many thing that i can share about mary but i wan't write a Novel. so fast forwarding, Mary was like a big sister to me .

always called me" Cuz" .... and to let her tell it, it was the only cuz she had. I was her tall Peacock LOL .... just before christmas we had a long conversation on the phone , we share how we missed eachother , but because of the Pandemic, we were unable to have physical contact. most important we prayed over the phone, that will surely be missed. Mary always had a amazing sense of humor, and kept a beautiful smile on her face. when Mary and I talked, she would always lifted my spirit doing the conversation, we never said goodbye. we just said we Love eachother.... Mary thanks for the Love you shown me over the years. and all the Memories we shared, they will be missed... truly missed.

RIP my Sister in Christ !!!

LOVE YOU !!

“ Ms. Mary Wallace. I'm so sorry you are no longer here with us. You were just on my mind so heavy these past couple of weeks and then I got the bad news. I thought about the time you were there for me in 2011 when I was hurting so bad. Thank you for your kind words, and the first person to ever put there foot down to my family member. I will always appreciate you for having my back. Thank you for all the holidays cards and love you sent my way. I love you and appreciate you sweet lady. Love toot b. RIH!
