

Massiah Jestine Ceasar-Washington

January 18, 2025

Massiah Jestine Ceasar-Washington, daughter of Jaida Washington and Alton “Andre” Ceasar, both deceased, and granddaughter of Stanley A. Washington Sr., Pastor Cedra J. Washington and Regina May Ceasar, transitioned into eternal life on Saturday, January 18, 2025, at the age of twenty-two.

Massiah graduated from Susquehanna Township High School and worked at Kiddy Academy on Progress Avenue, Harrisburg, PA. She was on the Board of Directors of “Beautiful You Enterprises,” a nonprofit organization with a mission to inspire and empower young girls. She enjoyed cooking for community meals at Harrisburg Brethren in Christ Church and being with her family. She loved to read, write and travel with family and her “Aunt” Jess.

Massiah was preceded in death by her parents and lived with her grandparents, Stanley and Cedra Washington, supported by her grandmother, Regina May Ceasar.

She is survived by her sister, Myleigh Ceasar-Washington; brother, Cahlen Ceasar-Washington and his son Yalen, who she loved to spoil with gifts; twin sisters, Andrell and Anrell Ceasar; her aunts, Schkira Washington, Frederika Ceasar and Tracy Evans; uncles, Stanley Washington Jr., Jeffery Ceasar, Terris Ceasar; and her special “Aunt” Jestine Wise-Pierce.

Massiah was known for her sense of humor and will be deeply missed by family and friends. Her family is grateful to have had Massiah in their lives and offer glory, honor and praise to God for her life.
