

Maurice Caldwell

May 14, 1944 - September 12, 2021

Maurice Caldwell, beloved family patriarch, was born Sunday, May 14, 1944, in Foreman, Arkansas. He was the son of the late Christine Caldwell and was raised by his grandparents, the late James and Theola Caldwell.

Maurice was a graduate of Unity High School, Class of 1963, in Foreman, Arkansas, and upon his high school graduation, he moved to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Maurice was employed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of General Services, from 1966 until his retirement in 1996. Upon retirement, he worked part-time at Giant Food until 2007.

In 1974, Maurice met Karen, the love-of-his-life, and they married on June 14, 1975. God blessed them with forty-six years of marriage. Maurice was a member and faithfully attended St. Jacob's Kimmerlings Church, Lebanon, Pennsylvania. He was a dedicated member of the Coalition of Black Trade Unionists (CBTU) and AFSCME Retirees, Chapter 13, where he served on the Executive Board.

Maurice loved life, and he loved his family and friends. His children and grandchildren were his pride and joy. Maurice was the "social butterfly" of the family. He was a weekly visitor to the Broad Street Market where he enjoyed spending time with his friends and greeting people as they walked through the market. Maurice was an avid fan of the Harrisburg Cougars; you would find him at every game cheering them on and, naturally, greeting everyone with his big smile and warm handshake.

At 2:30 a.m., on Sunday, September 12, 2021, Maurice finished his race and won his prize of eternal life. He was preceded in death by his mother, Christine Caldwell; grandparents, James and Theola Caldwell; son, Kirk Caldwell; daughter, Jana Caldwell Murphy; and grandson, KJ Caldwell.

Maurice leaves to cherish irreplaceable memories of his life: his loving wife, Karen Caldwell; two sons, Adrian and James Caldwell; two daughters, Clarise Dena Wallace and Tonya Jean Blount Ross (Demetrius); four granddaughters, Tiffany Hunter, Kasey Caldwell, Naiera Caldwell and Malaysia Murphy; one grandson, Adrian Caldwell; three great-granddaughters, one great-grandson and a host of extended family and friends.

“ I met Mr & Mrs Caldwell back when our daughters where in Harrisburg High School band front together and from there seeing Mr Caldwell at the Broad Street Market. Each and everytime you could count on him having a warm smile and always nothing but nice things to say. We need more people like him in the world we live in today. He will be remembered, missed and loved by many people he came in contact with.

To the Caldwell family,

May your hearts be overwhelmed with the great memories that you all had together, so embrace and cherish them all. It will help you get through this sad time. You have another angel to look over you and protect you. We the Miller family would like to thank him for allowing us to get to know him over the years, he will definitely be missed.

May GOD bless his entire family,

The Miller Family

“ I met Maurice though his son a few years back. The moment we met he gave me a warm feeling of sincere love & care. Just like another father to me that just stepped always lending a hand. I've really enjoyed the little times we shared, cooking all those home cooked country meals for him and watching his face glow. It has been a pleasure to have known him. GOD BLESS KAREN & THE FAMILY

“ I first met Mr. Maurice & Ms. Karen in 1978 when they became neighbors to my grandparents The Wiggins. Through the years he and my grandfather Mr. Wiggins, & Mr. Blackstone became real good friends. Mr. Maurice was one of the greatest men I grew up knowing. He was always a positive person and gave great advice to me, and so many other young people who listened. He was always there for his family & friends when they needed his help. He was a wonderful cook; I'm sure gonna miss his greens, purple hull peas, and so many other dishes. I viewed him as a father figure who I grew to Love! He was ALWAYS a man of his word and truly a stand up guy! I am sure gonna miss him! I hope he can give Jana a kiss and hug for me. My heart and deepest sympathy goes out to Ms. Karen, his children, grandchildren, and the rest of his family and close friends. I pray the Lord be with you all!

“ Maurice will be genuinely missed by many. Over the years, he has been the same out-going person that I knew back in Foreman, AR. Growing up in a small town, he had a nickname like most others back home, and everybody knew him by it. However, I won't share it at this time. We reconnected again about five years ago for breakfast as I was passing through Harrisburg. Since then, we have communicated with each other monthly. The last time we saw each other was when I asked him would he go with me to Meacham Auto Auction as my guest. The Unity School Alumni has lost another great person who never forgot about his roots. Karen and family, you are in my prayers in your time of loss.

“ Maurice was the father of my oldest brother, Kirk. Him, Karen and their children would visit our area on a regular basis. My family, including my siblings and I, consider them to be our family as well. I can speak for us all when I say that we truly adored Maurice. He was a kind-hearted soul who was truly special to us. May God wrap his arms around Karen, his children, grandchildren and all who knew and loved him. My sincere condolences.

“ I met Maurice right after he moved to Harrisburg. We lived a couple blocks from each other and worked for the Department of Health at the same time. He would drive past my house to get to his and, invariably, he would stop for a quick chat. He was a true friend and I will miss talking with him. My sincere condolences to Karen and his entire family.
