

Mrs. Maxine K. Coleman

January 1, 1949 - July 6, 2015

Maxine was born Saturday, January 1, 1949, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. She was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Coleman; and her daughter, Janna Jones.

Maxine graduated from William Penn High School where she excelled as a track star. She retired from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation. Her Christian faith was evidenced by her attendance at Kingdom Embassy formerly Harambee United Church of Christ. A pet lover, she also enjoyed painting, attending concerts and visiting casinos.

On Monday, July 6, 2015, Maxine peacefully made her transition into Life Eternal

Maxine leaves to lovingly remember and cherish many special memories her mother, Myrtle Jiggetts; one daughter, Rehema Jones; one son, Jediah Jones; one sister and brother-in-law, Mary Jiggetts and Rory Spradley; two granddaughters, Nikkita and Nariyah Jones; one grandson, Nashawn Collier Jones; one great grandson, Gioni Ngo Jones; an aunt, Emma Sherrill; cousins, Hiram Burrs, Milton Burrs, Patricia Allison, Judith Sherrill LeFlore, Nicole Sherrill; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Lovingly Submitted, The Family

Mrs. Coleman's life will be celebrated at 11 a.m., Monday, July 13th, at Wallace Funeral Directors with viewing 10 to 11 a.m. Interment will be at William Howard Day Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

CH

“Charlotte lit a candle in memory of Mrs.
Maxine K. Coleman

Charlotte - July 10, 2015 at 07:02 PM