“ Michael, I knew you as part of the third shift Help Desk trio - Mel, Sue, and you. When I met you, I could see your outer beauty; but when I came to know you, I saw your inner beauty through your eyes and smile. I will remember you as asking so little, but giving so much. Rest in peace and love. Warmly, Rocky “ Dearest Michael, when I think about my fed career, my immediate thoughts go to 3rd shift in SSB (You, me, Sue, Carl and Jeff). We laughed, cried, danced and drank lots of coffee. You were always brilliant as my teammate and friend.

You are home now, and I know the heavens are brighter with your loving light. Fly free of all burdens. Your memory will always shine on in my heart.

My love and blessings to Jason and all of Michael's family.

“ Here’s a revised version with corrected grammar:

Memorial for Mrs. Michael

As we sit and mourn the day you passed over to the other side, we remember you and cherish the time you spent with us. Amongst the young people, you were a staple who stayed a little while longer and made sure everyone’s head was on straight. We thought we had it all figured out, but we didn’t—we had no clue. Your words reminded us to live and love one another, to hug the babies a little tighter, and to give our time a little more. You were one of us, a “Kid,” as we were growing up, and so were you. This is why we will always remember your time here, and you will never be forgotten.

*P.S. The boys miss you, even the big one.
Love you, Mom. Signed Chrissy*

“ Michael, my beloved friend. So many wonderful memories we made and so much laughter we shared, I guess our girl's road trip was my favorite; or maybe our shrimp night's at Hollywood, or our wig buying adventure.... My extended family and friends loved you as much as we did, and we will all miss you dearly. I'm so thankful we had a long talk recently and that you knew how much we all loved you and missed spending time with you. I will cherish all the memories we made. Rest in peace, your in God's comfort now.
