

Mr. Michael Aaron Evans-Turner

August 1, 1983 - February 25, 2019

Michael was born Monday, August 1, 1983, in Harrisburg, PA, son of Melanie Turner and the late Donald R. Evans Sr.

Michael attended Steelton-Highspire High School, Harrisburg Area Community College, School for Culinary Arts, and was employed by ES3 Warehouse, York, PA. Michael's church affiliation was St. Paul A.M.E. Church, Oberlin, PA, under the pastorate of Rev. Mim Harvey.

Michael had plans and many goals for his life. If you knew him, you knew with his determination he would have accomplished these goals. He loved to have fun, and his contagious smile would light up any room he entered. Much of his spare time was spent writing poetry, dancing, enjoying comedy shows, traveling, playing and watching sports, especially the San Francisco 49ers and the LA Lakers. Foremost, and most importantly, Michael made sure he had time to enjoy close family, friends and BoroBoyz. On March 17, 2018, Michael met his beloved Christine; and on September 15th of that same year, Michael made Christine his wife. He dedicated his life to protecting and caring for his family and loved ones. If you needed help, Michael would give you his last dollar and offer you the shirt off his back.

On Monday, February 25, 2019, at thirty-five years of age, Michael Aaron Evans-Turner departed this life breaking the hearts of his wife, Christine Evans-Turner; mother, Melanie Turner; grandparents, Helena and Meade; sons, Alyknan and Isaiah; daughter Trinity; brothers, Shawn Seif, Donald R. Evans Jr., Darien, Harrison, Keenan, Myles and Chance Evans-Turner and Donald Hill; sisters, Theresa Manns, Shakenya Hill; and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ Thinking of Michaels family with heartfelt sympathy. So sorry for your tremendous loss. Please add to your precious memories, Bible reading. As you take one day at a time, may all feel God's comfort. For in the future, God will use his creative power to do one of the most wonderful works of all time: “He will actually swallow up death forever, and wipe the tears from all faces” (Isaiah 25:8; 26:19). In paradise on earth, the global resurrection will take place, resulting in a great family reunion. May you be comforted continually. Warmest regards, Denisa Batescoh.

“ I don't know if you remember me, but this is white boy Nate Coleman that used to come down and stay with all of y'all alot down in Cole Crest in the late 90's. I used to hang with Darien down there and I always seen the whole group of y'all...Old head Butch (great guy that cared about all his kids) and Melony (the laid back quiet mom). I just wanna say what's up Darien, Keenan, Miles and I believe Chance was the little one. It's been a while, but Mike was the oldest and I used to call him Big Mike, he used to answer the door alot down Cole Crest with that big smile of his, and I would always say with sarcasm, What's up Big Mike, and he had them big cheeks. I came across his obituary today and I'm just reminiscing upon a time which didn't seem too long ago. Best to all of the Evan's family. You held it down. My oldest brother Earl just died on October 16, 2016, of a drug overdose, so I can understand. I didn't straighten out my life until he passed. It sucks, but that's how it went. Well, I'll see you later my old friends. Big Mike and Butch, I ain't seen them for awhile, but I'm remembering them today. With love and respect, Nathan Coleman.
