“ 19th century preacher, Charles Spurgeon once said God, "trains his soldiers, not in tents of ease and luxury, but by turning them out and using them to forced marches and trials."

A true picture of Brother Mike. Tested through many hardships and trials yet...he remained steadfast, relentless and unwavering in his commitment and pursuit to preach the glorious deliverance of the Gospel of our LORD, JESUS CHRIST. May the day come soon that we together join him in glory, to the praise of JESUS CHRIST.

Praying the LORD raise up another mighty warrior of the faith to preach repentance toward God and faith in our LORD, JESUS CHRIST on the streets of Harrisburg. Mike fought the good fight and he kept the faith. How can anyone forget that smile? Mike's is permanent now!

*Michael B. Harris, "absent from the body..present with the LORD."
Mike touched so many lives, to God's glory. Shouting ALLELUIA !!!*

*Mike you will be missed, now that your face the angels have kissed, Harrisburg will never be the same, for the rolls up yonder have called your name, You stood for the good, you preached and a lot of souls were reached, you didn't take down on the Word of God, you completed your commission on earth's sod, you didn't play as you stood proclaiming "repent" each day, You planted a lot of seeds for the Master while you were here on earth and you shared your testimony of your new birth. rest on solder God is well pleased, as He says welcome home solder at ease
