The Obituary

MINNIE HARRIS

“The Broken Chain”

We little knew that evening that God would call your name.

In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you; you did not go alone.

For part of us went with you, the evening God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories and though we cannot see you, you're always at our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,

But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Minnie was born Monday, August 25, 1941, in Sumter, South Carolina, daughter of the late Julius Harris and the late Ethel Singleton Harris.

Minnie was educated at Ebenezer High School in Dalzell, South Carolina. She was the recipient of a Certificate of Appreciation for thirty-three years of service with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Transportation, from where she retired. Additionally, in 1990, Minnie was an Honoree for Secretarial Excellence. She enjoyed spending time with her family, attending and participating in the activities of her church, testing her ingenuity working puzzles and traveling.

As a confession of her faith and acceptance of Jesus Christ as her personal Savior, Minnie was united in Christian fellowship with Mount Zion Missionary Baptist Church, Steelton, Pennsylvania. She served on the Usher Board and with the Pennsylvania Baptist State Convention.

On Tuesday, October 23, 2012, Minnie was received by her Heavenly Father into eternal life joining her parents, one sister, Kathryn L. Harris, and one brother, Julius Harris Jr.

Minnie leaves to lovingly remember and celebrate her life three sisters, Martha E. Hunter, Ethel Crosson and her husband Matthew, all of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and Eva Mae Harris of Sumter, South Carolina. Special memories will also be cherished by one sister-in-law of Sumter; her godchild, Imia Williams; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
