

Mrs. Minnie I. Redcross

December 2, 1922 - July 23, 2019

Minnie I. Redcross, daughter of the late Joseph Lane and the late Ethel (Henderson) Lane, was born Saturday, December 2, 1922, in Harrisburg, PA. A graduate of the former William Penn High School, Minnie was employed by the PA State Library for many years. She was a dedicated member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church for over seventy-four years serving with the Church Board, Children Ministry, Choir, Ushers, Community Outreach, Bicoda Club as well as treasurer, clerk, cook and baker. She cherished her church family and was a faithful supporter of Hillside Seventh-day Adventist Church School. She loved her Lord, family and friends, and she enjoyed her companion, niece Miriam Jones, for over twenty years. Minnie truly was a living "Good Samaritan" to all.

Well known in the community as baker extraordinaire, she shared her culinary skills (fudge, taffy, breads, coconut cake, pies, cookies, puddings, ice cream, Special K roast, baked bean special and pound cakes), all second-to-none.

On Tuesday, July 23, 2019, Mrs. Minnie I. Redcross fell asleep in the Lord at the blessed age of ninety-six. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, Scott B. Redcross Sr.; son, Scott B. Redcross II; two sisters, Catherine and Flossie; and two brothers, Joseph and Dickey.

She leaves to cherish many special memories her son, Dr. Joseph W. Redcross and his wife Dr. Marguerite Redcross of Birmingham, AL; her grandchildren, Dr. Joseph W. Redcross II and his wife Nerma of Atlanta, GA, Jeffery L. Redcross of Muscle Shoals, AL, Mia Redcross of Birmingham, AL,

Marcelle Germain, Scott Redcross and his wife Jennifer and Marvin Redcross, all of Harrisburg, PA; nephews, Kenneth Dearing and his wife Janet of Huntersville, NC, David Elliott of Oklahoma City, OK, and Lucious Livingston husband of niece Ellen Francis Livingston (deceased) of Harrisburg, PA; nieces, Miriam Jones of Harrisburg, PA, Nancy Blackshire and her husband Argie, Cheryl Booth and Barbara Jones, all of Oklahoma City, OK; fourteen great-grandchildren, eleven great-great-grandchildren and a host of other family members, church family and friends.
