

Nannie Ruth Brooks

April 12, 1943 - November 3, 2022

Nannie Ruth Brooks, daughter of the late Hervie Lee Gaston and the late Nannie V. (Flowers) Royal, was born Monday, April 12, 1943, in Wadesboro, NC.

Educated in the public schools of Wadesboro, Nannie retired from Allied Maintenance in Mechanicsburg, PA. She was the ICEE Lady of Hall Manor where she resided.

In Harrisburg, PA, on Thursday, November 3, 2022, at seventy-nine years of age, Nannie departed this life joining in eternal life her parents, her husband, Charles Brooks; brother, Alfred Royal; and her brothers-in-law, George Jackson and Harry Alston.

Nannie was the love and strength of her family always desiring to do the right thing. However, if you needed “tough love,” you would surely receive it without hesitation. She was loving, understanding, “the mediator,” counselor, “Mom Dukes” with a “Madea” edge and always ready and willing to help anyone. She will always be with us in heart and spirit from her children, grandchildren, other family members and her neighborhood.

Nannie leaves cherished memories and her love to her children, Patricia Horne, Gilbert Horne Sr. (Lalesha), Michael Horne (Arlean), Tracy Horne

(Sharon), Charles Horne, Edgar Horne (Sherry), Sarina Horne and Shirley Horne (David); grandsons, Charles Brooks-Horne and King Solomon; siblings, Dorothy Jackson, Horace "Mason" Royal, Robert Lee Royal (Theresa), Monzell Cameron (Harold) and Diane Alston; godson, Claude Moton; stepson, Curtis Brooks; twenty grandchildren, twenty-eight great-grandchildren, other family members and friends.
