

Nassan Saku Campbell Richardson

January 5, 2002 - March 30, 2024

It is with the greatest sadness that the family announces the passing of Nassan Saku Campbell-Richardson of 22-years of age on March 30, 2024 in Grantville, PA. He joined in eternal life his paternal grandmother, Roxanne Richardson, and his cousin, Shaquan Campbell.

Nassan “Knot” was born on January 5, 2002 in Harrisburg, Pa. He is the son of Hassan Saku Richardson, Tenesha (Gonzalez) Elliott and Godson of Nikkia Danner Strain. He attended Central Dauphin East High School and later obtained his GED. He found fulfillment working at Prologistix (on-site at Schneider Electric). His joy was boundless when his temporary role turned into a permanent position.

Nassan was a big sports fan, his favorite football team was the Green Bay Packers. He was a skillful basketball player and as a past time enjoyed gaming with friends. In addition; composing & recording music, dancing, fishing and sharing laughs with loved ones were his greatest joys in life. Known for his warmth and easygoing nature, Nassan built a close-knit circle of friends who became his extended family.

Nassan leaves behind cherished memories and enduring love for his son, Aàseem Saku Campbell-Richardson (Da’Man), Siblings, Na’Leek Campbell-Waller, Na’Mire Campbell-Waller, Amina Richardson, Aaliyah Richardson, and Hassan Richardson Jr.; Maternal grandmother, Doretha Campbell; maternal grandfather, Daniel Gonzalez; his aunts and uncles, Shawnique Campbell, Lashawne Campbell, Maleek Campbell, Jermaine Campbell, James Walker (Sandra), Rochelle Leftenant, Fatima Richardson, and Charles Richardson. Nassan also leaves behind his cherished bearded dragon, Rexy, and his spotted leopards, Kitty and Legion, along with other family members and abundant number of friends.
