The Obituary

Nehemiah Clea

“Now the laborer’s task is o’er; now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore, lands the voyager at last.”

Nehemiah was born in Sumter, South Carolina, son of the late Thomas and Mattie Clea. He received his formal education in the public schools of Sumter.

An entrepreneur, he owned and operated Nehemiah Clea’s Remodeling Service for thirty-six years. Very industrious, Nehemiah accepted the challenge of any job; none were too small and none were too large. When working with his hands, he was the “Nehemiah of all-trades.” At an early age, he was taught and received the Lord Jesus Christ as his Personal Savior. He was formerly a member of Monumental A.M.E. Church, Steelton, Pennsylvania.

In addition to his parents, Nehemiah was predeceased by one brother, Thomas Clea; and one sister, Esther Clea.

In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Monday, September 12, 2011, God In His

Infinite Wisdom and Divine Love, called Nehemiah into eternal life leaving his children, Anthony Clea and his wife Teddi of Steelton, Jeffery "Scottie" Clea and his wife Tona, Phyllis Robinson and her husband Leonard, Tara Williams and Andrea Norris, all of Harrisburg; stepdaughters, Yolanda Meade of Marietta, Georgia, and Karen Brown of Tampa, Florida; four brothers, James Clea and his wife Rosalee of Baltimore, Maryland, Frank Clea and his wife Ethel of Sumter, Mike Clea of Harrisburg, and Albertus "Al" Clea and his wife Eartha of Sumter; one aunt, Mary Croom of Steelton; eight grandchildren; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
