

Nettie Mae Dixon

September 4, 1939 - December 12, 2022

Nettie Mae Dixon, daughter of the late Charleston Walden and Lenora (Jenkins) Walden, was born Monday, September 4, 1939, in Wrightsville, Georgia.

Upon completing her formal education in Wrightsville, Nettie relocated to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1966, and a few years later in 1973, she joined the Bold Springs Baptist Church where she served on the Usher Board and Choir. Nettie loved singing her gospel hymns. She loved to travel which inspired her to live in California for a few years before moving to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, to be closer to her family.

Very active within her community, Nettie was an avid member at the Rutherford House where she enjoyed line dancing and exercising. She loved to bake, especially her cake coated in coconut and pineapple as well as her famous peach cobbler.

In Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on Monday, December 12, 2022, at eighty-three years of age, Nettie transitioned from time to eternity joining her parents and ten siblings, Edie Mae, Bessie Mae, Charsbelle, Ann, Mary, Lucille, Sarah, George, James and General Lee Walden.

Nettie Mae Dixon leaves a loving legacy to be cherished by her four children, James (Josephine), Eula, Deborah and Douglas; two grandchildren, Zaira and Demir; and one great-grand-pup Sparx who she frequently called Sparkles. Loving memories will also be cherished by her brother, Bishop Daniel Walden Sr. (Daisy); and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
