

Norman Spriggs Jr.

June 25, 1969 - December 20, 2021

Norman Spriggs Jr. led an exciting life and will be greatly missed by the lives he touched.

Norman Spriggs Jr. was born Wednesday, June 25, 1969, in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, to the late Norman Spriggs Sr. and the late Lula Virginia Williams-Spriggs.

Norman accepted the Lord as his personal Savior at an early age because of the tutelage of his father, Bishop Norman Spriggs Sr. Norman was a faithful member of Deliverance Temple Church of God. He also attended Mount Olive Baptist Church in an effort to support his son Najee.

He received his formal education in the Harrisburg School District graduating from Harrisburg High School, Class of 1987. After high school, he joined the United States Army and was honorably discharged in 1999 after serving during Desert Storm. Later, he graduated from Harrisburg Area Community College with an Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice.

Norman's career path included employment by the Department of Corrections Pennsylvania State Prison System, Herbert Schaffner Youth Center, Abraxas Group Inc., Keystone Human Services and New Story School. Norman was extremely dedicated to working with special needs children.

Norman, affectionately called “Big N-ster, Hoss, Big Fool and Tony,” was known for his sunglasses, his many fragrances of cologne and his sense-of-humor. He enjoyed having game nights with his wife, children, other family members and friends. He was overly competitive and never liked to lose. He enjoyed watching his favorite team, the Philadelphia Eagles, traveling, watching movies, comedy shows and, most importantly, he enjoyed his Saturdays at GQ II Barbershop having conversations with his friends, Mr. Charles Arp, Rob Willis, Omar Parker and Marlon Tucker.

On Monday, December 20, 2021, at UPMC Harrisburg Hospital, Norman transitioned into eternal life at fifty-two years of age leaving to cherish fond memories his devoted wife, Tywila Spriggs of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania; seven children, Norman Spriggs III of Harrisburg, Tatiana Spriggs, Ishmael Spriggs, Briana Spriggs of Lawton, Oklahoma, Jamel Spriggs of Springfield, Massachusetts, Paige Spriggs and Najee M. Spriggs; his bonus son, Douglas Pitts II; two stepchildren, Nolan Adams and Ne`Mir Crosson, all of Harrisburg. His life will also be lovingly remembered by his siblings, Bernadette Clinton (Derrick), Nathaniel Spriggs (Lisa), Christian Spriggs (Lillian), Alphonso Spriggs (Rita), Autro (Witchy) Spriggs, Tawana (Moe) Spriggs, Antwoyn Spriggs (Newburgh Germany), Normel Spriggs; aunt, Barbara Austin (Guy); uncle, Thomas Spriggs (Doris); mother-in-law, Jody Burnett (Alfonso); sister-in-law, Christina Carden; nine grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Norman had a calming presence in times where I frequently found it difficult to remain that way. He touched so many lives through his work at New Story... students as well as staff. No matter how insurmountable of a task we faced he would (after I rambled off a million different ideas and plans of how to make it work) look me straight in the eyes, grin, and say “I got you”. He was with me through a lot of my professional growth as a supervisor and school director. I learned to trust his intuition and value his big heart. My deepest condolences to the family and to all who had the pleasure of knowing this wonderful soul. Rest In Peace, Norman ... you won't be forgotten and will be greatly missed!

“ Sending my condolences to the family of Norman Spriggs, Jr. Wow I would have never thought that when we ran into each other last month, after not seeing you for years, that the quick conversation we had would be the last time that I would see you. Prayers to your family during this rough time. RIP

“ Norman Spriggs was a close friend of mines
In 1999 after moving here in 1997 I got a job in corrections that's where I met my main man Norman we became close in boot camp at corrections we talked everyday and laughed all day after I left corrections I didn't see him for a while and then I ran into him and we stopped and laughed and talk like we never lost contact and then the barber shop we were going to the same barber shop it was always a good time when I seen him he never changed that brother had a smile that would make u smile u will be missed love u man I will se u again I'm living to live again.

“ I appreciated Mr. Norman so much. He was an amazing staff member at school and I think I was personally close with him. He would let me sit with him at lunch and take me to get the electronics and the up to the classroom in the elevator after. He would always to his best in competing with/ against us in gym, which was really fun. He would even do crafts with me. He was like our protector and I hope he rests peacefully.
